IT WAS A FESTIVE KICKOFF TO SPRING AS SAINT Clare's held its annual gala March 20 at the Pleasantdale Chateau in West Orange. The black-tie event featured dinner, dancing, and live and silent auctions. Proceeds will fund a variety of programs and projects at the hospital. In Denville, meanwhile, The Rose House held its annual gala, featuring dinner, cocktails and entertainment by Phoebe Snow. The group provides housing and other services for developmentally disabled adults. And the Villa at Mountain Lakes was the site of a gala for NewBridge Services, which offers mental health and substance abuse programs, among other services.
