Woman gets new post

PEQUANNOCK — Meredith Kirsch, a lifelong resident of Pompton Plains, has been appointed development assistant for NewBridge Services Inc., a non-profit provider of behavioral health and education programs and services.

Kirsch, 23, graduated from Pequannock Township High School and attended Providence College in Rhode Island, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in public and community service studies. She graduated in May 2009 with honors.

Kirsch is responsible for providing support for all functions of the development department, including database management, special events coordination, marketing communications and community outreach. Kirsch also mentors at the Morristown Neighborhood House and is a member of the Morris County Chamber of Commerce's Young Professionals Committee.
