

12/27/2009

Star Ledger

Newark, N.J.

Daily 417855

Sunday 520262

GARDEN STATE

PRESS CLIPPING

Phone: 732-842-1616

EXECUTIVE MOVES

■ SCORE, Bergen chapter, elected five officers: John Sanchez of Hillsdale as chapter chairman, Lewis Marchiona of Bergenfield as first vice chairman, Suzanne Sykes of Upper Saddle River as secretary, James Kerr of Wayne as treasurer and Anthony Basile of Emerson as assistant treasurer.

■ NewBridge Services appointed Meredith Kirsch as development assistant. She will be responsible for providing support for all functions of the development department, such as database management, special events coordination, marketing communications and community outreach. She graduated from Pequannock Township High School, attended Providence College in Rhode Island, graduating in May of 2009 and earning a bachelor of arts degree in public and community service studies. Kirsch mentors at the Morristown Neighborhood House and is a member of the Morris County Chamber of Commerce's Young Professionals Committee. She currently lives in Pompton Plains.

■ ISO Commercial Lines and Modeling vice president Beth Fitzgerald has been elected to the Casualty Actuarial Society board of directors for a three-year term. John Kollar, vice president of ISO, who has served as the society's president for the past year, will assume the role of chairman. Fitzgerald is responsible for ISO's insurance lines services for commercial auto, general liability, commercial fire and allied lines and specialty commercial lines such as business owners, management liability and crime. She is a member of the American Academy of Actuaries and a fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries. She earned her CPCU designation in 2008.

Tim Sparvero

MORE ONLINE

Get the latest New Jersey headlines from the newsroom of The Star-Ledger, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.