

December 30, 2009

Morris Business Briefs

Sam's Club in Mount Olive donated $800 on Dec. 11 to NewBridge Services Inc., a community provider of senior, youth, substance abuse, counseling and housing programs in Pequannock. The donation will benefit its residential housing program. From left, at the presentation, are Sam's Club marketing representative Brian Fahrer, manager Eric Coleman, NewBridge Director of Residential Services Jack Muzikowski, Sam's Club marketing team leaders Donna Lynch and Will Trux, Nina McCormack, the NewBridge director of development and marketing, and Joann Petonak, NewBridge residence counselor. (Photo contributed by NewBridge Services)