

NEW HOMES FOR NEWBRIDGE

NewBridge Services broke ground this month on an $3 million, three-building apartment complex in Pequannock that will provide affordable housing for 11 adults and families. Pictured at the ceremony are (left to right): Pequannock Township Manager Dave Hollberg, John Franklin of the United Way Morris County, NewBridge Executive Director Robert L. Parker, Jeff Gillman of the NewBridge board of trustees, Paul Hollick of the Pequannock Township Senior Citizens Corporation, Sabine Von Aulock of the Morris County Community Development, Rocco Di Verita of Boulder Construction, architect Dennis Kaczka, and Melody Federico, NewBridge's Director of Housing Development.
